

Application form

FA10_en_010122

Application for family reunification of spouses when the spouse living in Denmark has asylum

Uses

This application form is to be used to apply for family reunification in Denmark.

A foreign national (the applicant) can be granted a residence permit in Denmark on the grounds of family reunification for spouses if he/she has his/her spouse or cohabitating partner in Denmark.

This application form should be used when the spouse/cohabitating partner in Denmark has a residence permit on the grounds of asylum. By a residence permit on the grounds of asylum we mean a residence permit held by a foreign national who is protected by the Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees or by the terms of the Danish Aliens Act relating to asylum seekers (cf. the Danish Aliens Act section 7 and section 8).

If the spouse/cohabitating partner in Denmark has a residence permit on other grounds than asylum, application form FA1 should be used instead.

If the spouse/partner in Denmark has a temporary protected status

If the spouse/partner in Denmark has a temporary protected status (residence permit in accordance with Section 7 (3) of the Aliens Act), you will normally first qualify for family reunification after 3 years and only if the temporary residence permit has been extended after 3 years of residence. However, there can be certain situations in which granting family reunification may be necessary to avoid a hardship, even if the permit has not been extended after 3 years.

Read more about the regulations governing family reunification if the spouse/partner in Denmark has been granted a residence permit on the grounds of section 7 (3) of the Aliens Act at www.newtodenmark.dk/family.

What does the application form contain?

This application form contains of two parts:

- Part 1 - Application for family reunification of spouses in Denmark
- Part 2 - Information form for applicant's spouse/cohabitating partner in Denmark

How do you use the form?

In order to apply for family reunification of spouses, part 1 and part 2 must be submitted.

Part 1 is to be used by the person who is applying for a residence permit in Denmark (the applicant). He/she must:

- Fill out part 1.
- Attach required documents.
- Submit the application to a Danish diplomatic mission abroad (embassy or consulate general) or to the Danish Immigration Service.

Part 2 is to be used by the spouse/cohabitating partner who already has the right to live in Denmark. He/she must:

- Fill out part 2 and the relevant attachments.
- Attach the required documents.
- Submit part 2 to the Danish Immigration Service no later than 14 days after part 1 has been submitted.

Read the instructions on the first page of each part.

There is a checklist at the back of each part of the form that can be used to keep track of whether they have been filled out correctly and whether all the required documents have been included.

How can an application be submitted?

The applicant can submit the application at a Danish diplomatic mission in his/her country of residence. If the applicant already is a legal resident of Denmark, the application may normally be submitted in Denmark. Such is the case if the applicant:

- has a valid visa (short term),
- is exempt from visa requirements, or
- currently holds a Danish residence permit.

If the application can be submitted in Denmark, this can be done at the Immigration Service's Citizen Service. You must book an appointment before you show up at the Citizen Service. Read more about where the Immigration Service's Citizen Service has branch offices and how you book an appointment at www.newtodenmark.dk/visit-us.

The application can also be sent to the Immigration Service. Read more about where and how you can submit applications at newtodenmark.dk

How we process personal data

You can read more about the processing of your personal data and your rights in the fact sheets about data protection which you will find at the back of part 1 and part 2 of the form.

This application form is also available in a digital version, FA1 online, that can be found at newtodenmark.dk. The digital application form adapts according to your answers and is automatically sent to the Immigration Service, when you have submitted it.

Can the applicant work while the application is being processed?

No. Applicants may not work in Denmark while the Immigration Service processes the application for residence permit. If an applicant already has the right to work in Denmark due to another valid residence permit, then the applicant maintains this right.

Processing of your application

The Danish Immigration Service has a maximum time limit for processing applications for family reunification. The application processing times are calculated from the date the application is submitted. You can see our processing times at www.newtodenmark.dk/us-times

For more information

More information about the rules governing family reunification of spouses is available at newtodenmark.dk. If you have questions when filling out the form, you can also contact the Danish Immigration Service. See contact information at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us.

PART 1 (FA10a)

Application for family reunification for spouses in Denmark

Instructions

You who are applying for a residence permit in Denmark (the applicant), must do the following:

1. Fill out and sign this part of the form (Part 1).
2. Attach the required documents.
3. Submit the application to a Danish diplomatic mission (embassy or consulate general) in the country where you live. If you are a legal resident of Denmark, the application may normally be submitted in Denmark.

Which documents must you include?

- The following documents must be submitted with part 1:
- A copy of your passport (all pages, including the cover).
 - A marriage certificate (copy with authorised translation to Danish or English).
 - Documentation of cohabitation (Required only if you are not married).

Bring your passport

You must bring your current passport when you submit the application or get your digital facial image and fingerprints (biometric features) recorded so the authorities can verify your identity.

Recording of biometric features

You must get your biometric features for your residence card recorded in connection with the application being submitted. If you are residing in Denmark or a country where Denmark has a diplomatic mission, you must appear in person to have your biometric features recorded for your residence card.

If you are residing in a country where Denmark has a representation agreement with another country's diplomatic mission, you must appear in person and submit two facial images in connection with the application being submitted. Once you arrive in Denmark, your biometric features will be recorded for your residence card. Read more about biometric residence cards on the last page of part 1 and at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard.

To expedite the application process

Your application can be processed with the shortest possible processing time if

- you and your spouse fill out the parts correctly and include the required documentation, and
- Part 2 is submitted no more than 14 days after part 1 has been submitted, if you are applying from abroad. If you are applying from Denmark, both parts should be submitted together.

Missing information or documents

The Immigration Service may refuse an application if it does not include the necessary information or documents, or the processing time may be longer. We recommend, you use the check list at the end of part 1 of the form.

Receiving your ruling in a foreign country

If you are granted a residence permit, the case ruling will be sent to the Danish diplomatic mission where you submit your application (part 1). Thereafter you will receive the ruling from the diplomatic mission. Above you have stated in which country you have residence. If you do not submit the application (part 1) at a Danish diplomatic mission, the ruling will normally be sent to the Danish diplomatic mission in country where you have stated that you have residence. If there is no Danish diplomatic mission in the country where you have residence, you can inform us below about which Danish diplomatic mission you would like to receive your ruling from. A list of the diplomatic missions is available at www.um.dk. Please note that you generally have to have been residing in the country in question for the last 3 months. If the Immigration Service assesses that we cannot send your ruling to the stated diplomatic mission, we will contact you.

From which Danish diplomatic mission would you like to receive your ruling?

Receiving your ruling in Denmark

If you are currently in Denmark, state your date of entry, address, and contact information in Denmark.

Please note: if you state an address in Denmark, and the immigration authorities verify your identity when you submit your application, the ruling will be sent to your Danish address. If you have stated an address in Denmark, but the immigration authorities have yet to verify your identity, you will be asked to appear in person to get your identity verified. The authorities will not be able to issue a ruling in your case till after this is done.

Important: Inform the Immigration Service of any change to address or other contact information.

3. Information about your spouse/cohabiting partner PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Normally permission for family reunification cannot be granted if it is doubtful whether the marriage/cohabitation has been mutually agreed to by both parties.

If you and your spouse/cohabiting partner are closely related, the Immigration Service will consider it doubtful that the marriage/cohabitation has been entered into with the consent of both parties, unless special reasons suggest otherwise. Below you can state any reasons you believe contradict the assumption that your marriage/cohabitation has not been entered into voluntarily by you and your partner.

Are you and your spouse/cohabiting partner closely related? By closely related we mean e.g. uncles and aunts, cousins, the children of cousins, cousins of parents and the grandchildren of grandparents' brothers and sisters. This also includes close relatives of stepparents (by stepparents we mean individuals who act like a mother or a father without being a biological parent, e.g. foster parents).

Please note, if you want to apply for a residence permit for your child, and your child is older than 8 years at the time the application is submitted, and if your child and the child's other parent reside in your home country, or a third country, the Immigration Service will normally take into account whether your child will be able to develop sufficient ties to Denmark to allow him/her to integrate successfully.

An exemption from this requirement can be granted in certain situations, such as if your child has primarily lived with you, and is applying for a residence permit in connection with your own application for a Danish residence permit, or after you have been granted a residence permit. Read more about the rules at www.nyidanmark.dk/You-want-to-apply/Family/Family-reunification/Child-of-a-refugee-in-Denmark

6. Information about your family relations

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Do you have parents or siblings who have been granted a residence permit in Denmark on the grounds of family reunification with a spouse?

Yes No

If yes, who? (Given names(s) and surname):

7. About your marriage

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

You only need to fill out section 7 if you are married. If you are not married, go to section 8.

Danish legislation requires that we determine whether:

- Your marriage is valid under Danish laws.
- The marriage is entered into at the will of both spouses.
- The marriage is pro forma, i.e. with the primary reason of obtaining a residence permit for you.

Please note: According to Danish law marriages conducted by proxy (where one or both spouses were not present during the ceremony) are invalid. Marriages conducted by a religious cleric and without legal authority are also considered invalid. Such marriages can therefore not be used as a basis for family reunification.

The questions below are intended to help us look into this. We ask these questions in all cases, and we only ask questions that can be relevant for processing an application for family reunification for spouses.

When did you first meet your spouse?

How did you meet your spouse?

If you and your spouse met on the internet, when did you meet for the first time in person?

Did you decide for yourselves that you should marry?

Yes No

If no, who decided it?

When was the decision made?

If you have lived together before you got married, state where and in which periods:

If you have not lived together before you got married, explain how often and under what circumstances you maintain contact with your spouse:

Did you plan your own wedding?

Yes No

If no, who planned your wedding?

Where and when did you marry?

Were you both present at the ceremony?

Yes No

If you have not lived together since you got married, explain how often and under what circumstances you maintain contact with your spouse:

When did you last see each other?

Which language(s) do you speak together?

8. About your cohabitation

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

You only need to fill out section 8 if you are not married. If you are married, go to section 9.

The questions below are intended to help us determine your cohabitant relationship. We ask these questions in all cases, and we only ask questions that can be relevant for processing an application for family reunification.

When did you first meet your cohabiting partner?

How did you meet your cohabiting partner?

If you and your cohabiting partner met on the internet, when did you meet for the first time in person?

State where and during which periods you have lived together:

Address (Street, number, postcode, city)	Period (from date – to date)

If you occasionally have not lived together, explain how often and under what circumstances you maintain contact with your cohabiting partner:

When did you last see each other?

Which language(s) do you speak together?

9. Information about your education and work

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Have you attended school?

Yes No

Do you have an education or are you getting an education?

Yes No

If yes, inform which education:

Do you have other qualifications, specializations etc.?

Yes No

If yes, inform which:

Languages spoken:	Native language	Second language
	Other languages

Do you have a job?

Yes No

If yes, inform the following about your current job(s):

Position	Employer and contact information	Date of employment	Weekly working hours

Are you a self-employed person?

Yes No

If yes, inform the following about your company:

The company's name and CVR number, if applicable

Address

Telephone number	Your working hours per week
The company's start date/acquisition date	Number of employees

Describe your work effort in the company, the type of company, the company's size, turnover, opening hours etc.

Have you previously had a job with a minimum of 30 working hours per week?

Yes No

If yes, inform the following about your previous job within the last 5 years:

Position	Employer and contact information	Period of employment (start date – end date)

If you at present time or previously have had an affiliation with a military organisation, trade union organisation, professional organisation or similar to this, you must inform it below. Your position (part) could have been e.g. ordinary member, member of the board etc. You do not have to inform your affiliation with hobby or sport organisation/club etc.

Do you have or have you previously had an affiliation with a military or trade union organisation etc.?

Yes No

If yes, inform the following:

The name of the organisation	Your position	Period (start date – end date)

About the questions in sections 10, 10.A, 11 and 12

There are some basic requirements that must be met in order to be granted family reunification in Denmark. For example, that your marriage is valid. That is why we have asked the questions in section 1-9 which everyone has to answer.

Furthermore you normally have to meet a number of additional requirements in order to be granted family reunification. For example, that you meet an integration requirement, and that you (the applicant) must pass 2 tests in Danish after being granted residence permit. Sections 10-12 ask questions relating to these requirements.

When your spouse/partner, living in Denmark, has been granted a residence permit on the grounds of asylum, you will only be required to answer the questions below if the Danish Immigration Service determines that it is possible for you to live together as a family in another country.

If you believe that you and your spouse/cohabitating partner cannot be referred to live together as a family in another country, you do not have to fill out sections 10-12. If you choose not to answer the questions in Sections 10-12, and we later determine that you must meet the requirements, you will be asked to answer them.

10. The integration requirement

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Normally, it is a requirement for residence permit, that you and your spouse or partner meet an integration requirement. You meet this requirement together by meeting 4 out of 6 integration-related conditions. One of the conditions is not optional. Besides that condition, you will need to meet 3 out of 5 other conditions.

The 6 conditions are:

- Your spouse or partner has passed the Danish language test 3, or a test that is equivalent to or at a higher level (must always be met – not optional).
- Your spouse or partner has had fulltime employment or been self-employed in Denmark for a minimum of 5 years.

- Your spouse or partner has attended school for a minimum of 6 years, with at least 1 of the 6 years being secondary education.
- You have passed a Danish language test 1 or an English test at B1 level, or another Danish or English test that are equivalent to or at a higher level.
- You have had fulltime employment or been self-employed for a minimum of 3 years within the last 5 years.
- You have passed an educational course with the duration of at least 1 year, at a level minimum equivalent to a Danish vocational education.

It is up to you yourselves to decide which 3 of the 5 optional conditions you want to include in to the assessment of whether you meet the integration requirement. Therefore it is only necessary for you to enclose documentation for your language skills, education and/or work, if you wish that those specific conditions are part of the assessment of whether you meet the requirement.

Read more about the integration requirement and the specific conditions at www.newodenmark.dk/integrationrequirement

Have you passed a Danish language test 1 or another test equivalent to or at a higher level?

Yes No

If yes, you must enclose documentation for your Danish language skills, if you want to meet the integration-related condition about Danish language skills. Read more at www.newtodenmark.dk/danshtest1

Have you passed an English test at B1 level or another test equivalent to or at a higher level?

Yes No

If yes, you must enclose a test diploma from a recognised language-training organisation, if you want to meet the integration-related condition about English language skills. Read more at www.newtodenmark.dk/englishtestb1. The documentation must be in copy with an authorised translation to Danish or English.

Education

You must enclose documentation for your education stated in section 9, if you want to meet the integration-related condition about education with duration of at least 1 year. The documentation can e.g. be a test diploma, or a statement from the educational institution specifying the period where you have been admitted to the institution. It can also be verified transcripts with grades. The documentation must be in copy with an authorised translation to Danish or English.

Employment

You must enclose documentation for your current and previous job(s) stated in section 9, if you want to meet the integration-related condition about employment for 3 out of the last 5 years. The documentation can e.g. be employment contracts, a declaration from your employer, pay bills etc. It can also be tax registrations from authorities in other countries. If you are a self-employed person, the documentation can e.g. be a proof of ownership, registration certificate from the tax authorities regarding CVR number, VAT returns or annual accounts. The documentation must be in copy with an authorised translation to Danish or English.

Have you reached the pensionable age in your home country?

Yes No

10.A Consent to data collection

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

If you want to meet the integration-related conditions regarding employment and/or education, you must be aware that we may contact the employers or the educational institutions that you have stated in section 9, in order to get your information confirmed.

Below you must give your consent to us contacting your employers and/or educational institutions. If you do not give your consent, it can result in you not meeting the integration-related conditions about employment and education.

I hereby consent that the Immigration Service can contact the employer(s) stated in section 9 in order to get my employment(s) confirmed.

I hereby consent that the Immigration Service can contact the educational institution(s) stated in section 9 in order to get my educational course(s) confirmed.

11. Attachment to Denmark and any other country

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

In order to qualify for a residence permit, you and your spouse/cohabitating partner must normally have greater ties to Denmark than to any other country. As the applicant, you must normally have visited Denmark before. More about the attachment requirement is available at www.newtodenmark.dk/family.

Have you visited Denmark before (including your current visit, if you are in Denmark)?

Yes No

If yes, when were you in Denmark (from date – to date):

Have you lived in any other country than your home country for more than six months?

Yes No

If yes, where (countries) and when?

Did you have a residence permit in this country?

Yes No

If yes, enclose a copy of your latest residence permit in the country.

12. Danish test

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

If you are granted a residence permit and you later need to have your residence permit extended, it will normally be a requirement that you within 6 months after you have registered with the Civil Registration System (CPR) pass a test in Danish at A1 level, and that you within 9 months also pass a test in Danish at A2 level. The tests are oral examinations where you are to answer a number of questions in Danish.

We can however waive the requirement about a Danish test in certain cases – see 'About the questions in sections 10, 10.A, 11 and 12' above.

Certain other tests can be taken instead of the Danskprøve A1 and Danskprøve A2 offered by the immigration authorities. See the full list of approved alternative A1-level tests at newtodenmark.dk.

If you have already passed an A1-level test in Danish and you submit documentation, the amount of collateral your spouse must post will only be DKK 85,915.40 (2022 level) instead of DKK 107,394.25 (2022-level). If you have already passed an A2-level test in Danish and you submit documentation, the amount of collateral your spouse must post will only be DKK 75,175.98 (2022-level).

Have you passed an A1-level test in Danish or another Danish language test of an equivalent level?

Yes No

Have you passed an A2-level test in Danish or another Danish language test of an equivalent level?

Yes No

If yes, enclose documentation in the form of completion certificate.

If you have a disability which prevents you from completing the exam (such as, if you are visually or hearing impaired) please indicate below:

Remember to enclose documentation in the form of an official doctor's statement.

13. Other information which you find relevant for your application

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Normally, the Danish Immigration Service does not take the state of your health or handicap into account when evaluating an application for family reunification.

However, in certain cases, health issues may be considered. This would be the case if you spouse/cohabitating partner living in Denmark has been granted residence permit in accordance with Section 7 (3) of the Aliens Act. Individuals granted residence permit under these terms will normally first qualify for family reunification after 3 years and only if the temporary residence permit has been extended after 3 years of residence. In these instances, the Immigration Service will decide whether rejecting an application for family reunification would create a hardship. This would for example be the case if the spouse/cohabitating partner in Denmark has taken care of a handicapped spouse/cohabitating partner in the home country before moving to Denmark, or if the spouse/cohabitating partner in Denmark has seriously ill minor children living in his/her country of origin.

If you suffer from serious illness or have a handicap and you feel that your condition should be taken into account in your application, please indicate that below. You are required to submit documentation of your condition, such as doctor's statement. The Immigration Service will use the information provided to determine whether your condition should be taken into account.

Do you have a serious handicap or do you suffer from serious illness?

Yes No

If yes, please state which handicap/illness, and what treatment you are receiving:

Do you rely on another person to care for you?

Yes No

If yes, please answer the following:

Did your spouse/partner care for you before taking up residence in Denmark?

Yes No

Who cared for you after your spouse/partner travelled to Denmark?

Any other relevant information for the processing of your application:

14. Declaration of active participation in Danish language learning and integration into Danish society, in accordance with section 9(2) of the Danish Aliens Act

This declaration is intended to stress the importance of a good knowledge of the Danish language, Danish culture, and Danish society for new immigrants. The declaration is formulated especially for applicants who do not have prior knowledge of or particular qualifications for being familiar with the Danish language, culture and society.

In order for you to be granted family reunification you must fulfil the declaration that you will, to the best of your ability, actively participate in your own and your children's Danish language education and integration into Danish society. If you do not mark the declaration or in another way indicate and document that you accept the content of the declaration, it can influence your application for family reunification, and you must expect to get a refusal.

If you in another way have indicated to accept the content of the declaration you must attach documentation for this.

I declare that, to the best of my abilities, I will make active efforts to ensure that I and my children (if any) acquire Danish language skills and integrate into Danish society. I therefore declare as follows:

- I will make active efforts to become self-supporting through gainful employment.
- I will make active efforts to learn the Danish language.
- I will make active efforts to acquire an understanding of the fundamental norms and values of Danish society.
- I will make active efforts to participate in the life of the community.
- I will participate actively in any integration programme I am offered.
- I will make active efforts to facilitate the integration of my children by cooperating with day-care centres, schools, etc. to ensure that they acquire Danish language skills as early as possible and that they receive instruction in assuming responsibility for their own learning.
- I understand that in order to obtain a permanent residence permit or citizenship, I must pass a Danish language test
- I am aware that the DKK 107,394.25 (2022-level) guarantee normally lodged by my spouse/cohabiting partner in connection with my application for a Danish residence permit upon request will be reduced:
 - by DKK 21,478.85 (2022-level) if I within 6 months after I have registered with the Civil Registration System (CPR) pass a test in Danish at A1 level (or another Danish test at a similar or higher level).
 - by DKK 10,739.42 (2022-level) if I within 9 months after I have registered with the Civil Registration System (CPR) pass a test in Danish at A2 level (or another Danish test at a similar or higher level).
 - by DKK 10,739.42 (2022-level) - however the guarantee must constitute at least DKK 64,436.55 (2022-level) - if I pass a final Danish language test.
- I am aware that in Denmark principles apply such as the need for respect and for equal opportunities for girls and boys to develop; that adults are obliged to listen to their children; and that corporal punishment is prohibited. Moreover, I am aware that schools are subject to principles governing participation by students and parents in the decision making process and co-operation between parents and school.

I do not declare that I will, to the best of my ability, actively participate in my own and my children's Danish language education and integration into Danish society

15. Other declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information I have given in this application is correct and complete.

If the information is found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:

- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years (Criminal Code section 161, cf. Aliens Act section 40).
- I can be required by law to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false or incomplete information (Aliens Act section 40).
- My residence permit can be revoked (Aliens Act section 19).

B. Declaration of consent to allow authorities to gather necessary information

I consent to letting the Immigration Service obtain information about my pure private affairs from other Danish authorities, including the police authorities, for the purpose of enabling them to process my application (Public Administration Act section 29).

Such information includes:

- Criminal conditions
- Health conditions
- Intern family conditions
- Social conditions

C. Sworn declaration that I am not covered by a sanction list

I solemnly swear that I am not covered by a restrictive measure in the form of a restriction with regards to entry and traveling through Denmark (sanction list), decided by the United Nations or the European Union. The sanction lists more specific content can be found at the European External Action Services (EEAS) webpage, eeas.europa.eu (http://eeas.europa.eu/cfsp/sanctions/index_en.htm).

If I am found to be covered by a sanction list, decided by the United Nations or the European Union, I can be subject to the following consequences:

- My residence permit can be revoked (the Aliens Act section 19).
- I can be expelled from Denmark (the Aliens Act section 25 a).

D. Information about data protection

You can get information about how the Immigration Service and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark process your data and about your rights in the fact sheet at the back of this part of the form.

E. Notification that information can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authority

The information and documents that you submit with your application can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and the Danish public prosecuting authority (Aliens Act section 45 a and section 45 c). This process can be initiated by Danish immigration authorities, Danish intelligence agencies or the Danish public prosecutor.

The prosecuting authority will be able to use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark or abroad, to identify victims of or witnesses to a specific crime, or to aid foreign law enforcement agencies.

F. Notification that some information will be passed on to local Danish authorities

Danish immigration authorities give certain information to authorities in the municipality (kommune) where you will live, should you be given a residence permit (Aliens Act section 44a).

The municipality will also be informed if

- your residence permit is not renewed at a later point or has been revoked,
- your residence permit is found to be lapsed, or
- your residence permit is made permanent.

Finally, the municipality where you live will have access to information about you contained in the Danish immigration authorities' registers if the information is necessary for it to carry out its duties.

The municipality will have access to data contained in the Danish Immigration Service's registers required for processing your case, including:

- Information about existing and other earlier grounds for residence.
- Information about the status of your application, including the date it was submitted, type of application and whether a decision has been appealed, etc.
- Information regarding your progress in Danish classes.
- Information about municipalities where you have previously resided.

G. Information that some information will be passed on to your employer

The Danish immigration authorities will inform your possible current and previous employers, who you have been working for within the last 3 months, if your application for residence permit is refused, if extension of your residence permit is denied, if the residence permit has lapsed or is being revoked (Aliens Act section 44a).

The immigration authorities can obtain information in the income registry (eIndkomst) about the salaries that have been paid to you within the last 3 months if necessary (Aliens Act section 44a).

H. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you have given in this application. This may happen while the application is being processed or later, if you are granted a permit. If you are granted a permit and the Immigration Service finds that you no longer meet the requirements of your residence permit, your permit may be revoked. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information, or of not meeting the requirements of your residence permit.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Civil Registration System.
- Comparison of information contained in the Danish immigration authorities' registers with records held by the Civil Registration System (CPR), the Buildings and Housing Registry (BBR) or the income registry (eIndkomst).
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities.
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study.
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace.

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

I. Information about the consequences for permanent residence, if you have worked against the establishment of your identity

You are obligated to provide correct information about your identity. If you have worked deliberately against the establishment of your identity in connection with your application for residence permit/extension of residence permit, it could mean, that you cannot be granted a permanent residence permit in the future. This applies if you e.g. present falsified identity documents, or if you give untrue information about your name, date of birth (age), country of birth or citizenship.

Have you remembered everything?

If your application for family reunification with your spouse is correctly filled out and contains the required documents, the Immigration Service can process your case with the shortest possible processing time. The expected maximum processing time (service goal) for applications for family reunification can be found at www.newtodenmark.dk/us-times. If your application is not correctly filled out or is missing documents, it can be refused, or the processing time may be longer. It is therefore important that you make certain that the forms are filled out correctly and that you have included the necessary documents before submitting your application.

We recommend using the checklist below before submitting the application.

Checklist

Before submitting your application, please ensure you have enclosed the following:

- Copy of your passport (all pages including cover). If the passport is submitted to the authorities, you only have to enclose a copy of all filled out pages including cover.
- Copy of marriage certificate with an authorised translation to Danish or English.
- Documentation of cohabitation. Only required of couples that are not married. Such documentation includes a rental agreement showing joint tenancy, letters received at the same address, statements from landlords or employers, etc.
- Documentation for completed A1-level or A2-level test in Danish (if applicable).
- Documentation for completed Danish language test 1 or English test at B1 level (if applicable).
- Documentation for education for at least 1 year (if applicable).
- Documentation for employment for at least 3 out of the last 5 years (if applicable).
- Documentation for special handicaps which prevents you from completing a Danish test (if applicable).

It is also important to

- answer all questions, and
- sign and date the application.

Furthermore, it is important that you

- remember to have your biometric features recorded within 14 days of your application being submitted, and
- remember to bring your passport when you submit your application, and when you get your biometric features recorded for your residence card.

Biometric features required on residence cards

If you submit your application in Denmark or in a country where Denmark has a diplomatic mission, you must appear in person to have your digital facial image and fingerprints (biometric features) recorded for your residence card.

If you submit your application at the diplomatic mission of a country with which Denmark has a representation agreement, you must appear in person to submit two facial images. Upon arrival in Denmark, your biometric features will be recorded for your residence card.

If you send your application by post or if it is submitted by a third-party such as a lawyer, you must appear in person to have your biometric features recorded within a set deadline from the application being submitted. If you reside in a country where Denmark has a representation agreement with another country's diplomatic mission, you must appear in person to submit two facial images within a set deadline from submitting your application. You can see the set deadline for recording of biometric features at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard.

When you appear to have your biometric features recorded or to submit your facial images, please remember to bring a photocopy of the first three pages of this application form. This will allow the immigration authorities to match your biometric features with the application. Please note if you refuse to get your facial image or fingerprints recorded in connection with submitting your application, your application will be rejected.

Please bring your passport or other form of travel documentation when having your biometric features recorded or when submitting your facial images. In addition to your biometric features, your signature will also be recorded. Facial images and fingerprints are stored on a microchip embedded in the residence card. If you are not physically capable of providing fingerprints, you are exempt from the requirement to be fingerprinted.

If you live in Denmark, biometric features can be recorded at the Immigration Service's Citizen Service. You must book an appointment before you show up at the Citizen Service. Read more about where the Immigration Service's Citizen Service has branch offices and how you book an appointment at www.newtodenmark.dk/visit-us.

If you are to submit the application abroad please note that you must check the website of the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs: 'Where to apply' at www.um.dk/en/travel-and-residence/where-to-apply for information as to where you may submit your biometric features. Please note that for many locations you must present yourself in person at a Visa Application Centre (VFS) and that you must book an appointment before you show up.

Note that Denmark does not have diplomatic missions in all countries of the world and that representation agreements have been signed with other countries. In such cases, you must seek relevant information from the representing mission, cf. above link.

Read more about residence cards and biometric features at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard.

Information about data protection in the Danish Immigration Service

Data controller

The Immigration Service is responsible for processing the personal data you provide in this application form and for the data about you we receive in connection with processing the case. Our contact information is: Danish Immigration Service, Farimagvej 51A, 4700 Næstved, CVR-nr.: 77940413, telephone: +45 35 36 66 00, www.newtodenmark.dk

Data protection officer

If you have questions about how we process your personal data, you can contact our data protection officer who has the following contact information: Danish Immigration Service, Farimagvej 51A, 4700 Næstved, Att: Databeskyttelsesrådgiver/Data protection officer

You can also write to our data protection officer via Digital Post (e-Boks) or through our contact form at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us

Purpose and legal basis

Your data are collected in order to process your application for residence and the possible following residence in Denmark and to control the requirements for this.

The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

- provisions of the Aliens Act (udlændingeloven), in particular: section 1 (relating to entry into Denmark and residence)
- the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 6.1(c) (relating to the processing of data in order to comply with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject) and 6.1 (e) (relating to the exercise of official authority vested in the Immigration Service by the Aliens Act)
- GDPR 9.2 (f) (relating to the necessity of processing in order to establish, exercise or defend legal claims)
- The Data Protection Act section 8 (relating to the administration only being allowed to process information about criminal offences if it is necessary for the official authorities' tasks).

You are obligated to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Danish residence permit (Aliens Act section 40). Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to one year imprisonment, as well as placing your residence permit in jeopardy (Aliens Act section 60).

The information you supply or have supplied in connection with your application for a residence permit will be registered in the Danish immigration authorities' registers. The same holds true for any information you give in conjunction with an application to extend your residence. If you receive a residence permit, it will be registered in the Civil Registration System. The Civil Registration System is a computerised register maintained by the Ministry of Social Affairs and the Interior.

Types of personal data

We process the following types of data about you:

- General personal data, such as: information about your identity; citizenship and nationality; travel routes; information about your family; memberships of associations; financial information; information about your refugee status; and whether you have committed any legally punishable offences
- Sensitive personal data, such as: political opinions or religious beliefs; health information and biometric data collected for the purpose of establishing your identity.

Recipients and categories of recipients

The Immigration Service can, in certain situations, share your data with other authorities. We regularly share data with: the police, municipal authorities, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service and the Danish Defence Intelligence Service (in accordance with section 45 a of the Aliens Act), the public prosecutor (in accordance with section 45 c of the Aliens Act), the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish Return Agency, Danish Agency for Science and Higher Education, the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration, the Danish Parliament, and the Foreign Ministry, in particular the embassies and consulates.

Data are shared when it is necessary for the Immigration Service to exercise our official authority, including when we are legally obliged to share data.

In certain situations, the Immigration Service may provide data to a third-party data processor. In addition, other authorities and private organisations can have access to this information (Aliens Act section 44a). In isolated cases, the Immigration Service will share data with other public authorities, private-sector organisations and foreign organisations and authorities.

Origin of information

The Immigration Service processes the personal data you have provided in this application form and data you may provide at a later point in the case process.

In addition, we will process data obtained from:

- any of your possible previous cases with the Immigration Service,
- searches in databases, such as: the Civil Registration System, the income register (eIndkomst), the Central Register of Buildings and Dwellings (BBR), the Central Crime Register (KR), the Central Passport Register and the Schengen Information System (SIS II),

- other authorities, such as: the police, municipal authorities, the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration, the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service, The Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish Return Agency, and the Foreign Ministry, in particular the embassies and consulates,
- third-parties, such as: employers and educational institutions, and
- the person who is sponsoring your application, as well as any previous cases the person may have had at the Immigration Service.

Storage of data

The Immigration Service will store your data for as long as it is necessary for us to establish or defend a legal claim to residence.

Data submitted as part of an immigration-related matter can be stored for use by the Immigration Service at a later date. The data stored by the Immigration Service can be used in applications to extend a residence permit, when revoking a residence permit, when lapsing a residence permit, applications for permanent residency, applications for naturalisation, when revoking citizenship and in your children's cases, or in the event they may be involved in an application for family reunification.

If data can be deleted at an earlier point, deletion will be considered. Similarly, access to data can be restricted.

Finally, it should be mentioned that data will also have to be transferred to the National Archives within 30 years, in accordance with section 13 of the Archive Act (arkivloven).

If you have your finger prints and facial photo taken for use with your residence card and for identification and identity control, your fingerprints and photo will be stored in the immigration authorities' database. If you are granted a residence permit, your fingerprints and photo are stored for 10 years. If you are not granted a residence permit, your fingerprints and photo are stored for 20 years. If you are granted Danish citizenship, your fingerprints and photo will be deleted.

Consent

The Immigration Service does not request consents in order to process personal data, as is otherwise required by the GDPR, since processing authority is granted by 6.1 (e) and 9.2 (f) of the GDPR (see section 3).

You may be asked for legal consent. Such a consent is not the basis for the specific procession of personal data but is instead a warranty provision in accordance with e.g. the Public Administration Act (forvaltningsloven) or the Aliens Act.

Rights

Under the GDPR, you have certain rights:

- You have the right to access which data about you the Immigration Service is processing.
- You have the right to request that corrections are made to personal data about you that you feel are inaccurate.
- In special situations you have the right to have data about you deleted or to restrict the processing of your personal data, if the data is no longer necessary for the processing of your case.
- You have the right to object to otherwise legal processing of your personal data.

You can read more about your rights in the Danish Data Protection Agency's guidance about the GDPR at www.datatilsynet.dk. If you would like make use of your rights under the GDPR, contact the Immigration Service.

Complaints to the Data Protection Agency

You have the right to submit a complaint to the Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the way we process your personal data. Information about how to do so is available at www.datatilsynet.dk

Information about data protection in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark is responsible for the processing of personal data, when the Ministry or a Danish Diplomatic Missions (Embassy or General Consulate) assists the Danish Immigration Service in matters regarding the Aliens Act.

Data controller

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark is the data controller of the processing of data collected from the application form and data collected from your case, when your application is submitted to a Danish Diplomatic Mission or a private company that has made an agreement with a Danish Diplomatic Mission or the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark regarding the handling of certain administrative tasks regarding residency. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark is also the data controller, when the Ministry or the Danish Diplomatic Mission (Embassy or General Consulate) exercises tasks regarding the processing of your case – including interviews, DNA-tests and verification of documents.

Data Protection Officer

If you have questions about the processing of your personal data done by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark, please contact our Data Protection Officer: Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark, Asiatisk Plads 2, DK-1448, Copenhagen K, Att. Data Protection Officer, e-mail: dpo@um.dk

Purpose and legal basis

The purpose of collecting personal data and the legal basis for the processing of your data corresponds to the purposes and legal basis of the processing done by the Danish Immigration Service – see 'Information about data protection in the Danish Immigration Service' above.

Types of personal data

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark process the same category of data as the Danish Immigration Service – see 'Information about data protection in the Danish Immigration Service' above.

Recipients or categories of recipients

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark transfers the collected data to the Danish Immigration Service.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark, including the Diplomatic Missions, may in some cases transfer your data to a data processor, who will then process your data on the behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark and the Diplomatic Missions.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark may also transfer your data in certain isolated cases to other public authorities, private-sector organizations, foreign organizations and authorities in relation to the verification of documents.

Origin of information

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark processes the personal data you have provided in this application form and data you may provide at a later point in the case process.

Storage of your data

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark will store your data for as long as it is necessary in order to exercise the Ministry's responsibilities in relation to the case process. As a main rule the Ministry will store your data in our filing systems for 5 years where they will be erased subsequently. In isolated cases we may store your data for a longer period of time. In this case the data will have to be passed on to the National Archives within 30 years (section 13 of the Archive Act (arkivloven)).

If you have your finger prints and facial photo taken for the use of your residence card when you apply for residency at a representative or a private company, your finger prints and facial photo will be stored in the filing systems of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark. This information will be erased after 30 days from when a decision has been made in your case or at latest 2 years after collected.

Consent

We refer to the paragraph on consent in 'Information about data protection in the Danish Immigration Service' above.

Rights as a data subject

We refer to the paragraph on rights in 'Information about data protection in the Danish Immigration Service' above. You have the same rights for the processing done by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark. If you wish to invoke your rights regarding the processing done by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark, please contact the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark.

Complaints to the Data Protection Agency

You have the right to submit a complaint to the Data Protection Agency, if you are dissatisfied with the way the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark process your personal data. Information about how to do so is available at www.datatilsynet.dk.

PART 2 (FA10b)

Information form for the applicant's spouse/cohabitating partner in Denmark

FA10b_en_010122

Instructions

You, who already has the right to live in Denmark (the applicant's spouse in Denmark), must do the following:

1. Fill out this part of the form and the relevant attachments.
2. Attach the required documents.
3. Submit part 2 to the Danish Immigration Service. If your spouse (the applicant) is currently in Denmark, this part (part 2) should be submitted at the same time as the application (part 1).

Which documents should you include?

In each part of the form, it is specified which documents should be enclosed.

You may also have to fill out one or more attachments. Each attachment will specify who should fill them out.

To expedite the application process

Your spouse's application can be processed with the shortest possible processing time if

- you and your spouse fill out the parts correctly and enclose all required documentation, and
- Part 2 is submitted no more than 14 days after Part 1 has been submitted, if your spouse is applying from abroad. If your spouse is applying from Denmark, both parts should be submitted together.

Missing information or documents

The Immigration Service may refuse an application if it does not include the necessary information or documents, or the processing time may be longer. We recommend, you use the check list at the end of part 2 of the form.

If you have a temporary protected status

If you have a temporary protected status (residence permit in accordance with Section 7 (3) of the Aliens Act), the applicant will normally first be granted family reunification of spouses after 3 years and only if your residence permit can be extended after 3 years. However, there can be certain situations in which granting family reunification of spouses may be necessary to avoid a hardship, even within the first 3 years.

Read more about the regulations governing family reunification of spouses if the spouse/cohabitating partner in Denmark has been granted temporary protected status at www.newtodenmark.dk/family.

Information about the grounds for your residence permit

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Answer the following questions about the grounds for your residence permit. Your residence permit states which type of residence has been granted.

Under which section of the Aliens Act you have been granted a residence permit?

- Section 7 (1) Section 7 (2) Section 7 (3) Section 8, cf. Section 7

If you have been granted residence permit under section 7 (3) please answer the following:

Has the residence permit been extended after 3 years of residence?

- Yes No

When does your residence permit expire?

Information about your spouse/cohabiting partner seeking a residence permit

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Given name(s)	Surname
Date of birth (day, month, year)	Nationality
CPR number (if applicable)	Personal ID (if applicable)

Does your spouse have any children from a previous relationship, who are also applying for Danish residence permit?

Yes No

If yes, complete Attachment 2.

Normally, permission for family reunification cannot be granted if it is doubtful whether the marriage/cohabitation has been mutually agreed to by both parties.

If you and your spouse/cohabiting partner are closely related, the Immigration Service will consider it doubtful that the marriage/cohabitation has been entered into with the consent of both parties, unless special reasons suggest otherwise. Below you can state any reasons you believe contradict the assumption that your marriage/cohabitation has not been entered into voluntarily by you and your partner.

Are you and your spouse/cohabiting partner closely related? By closely related we mean e.g. uncles and aunts, cousins, the children of cousins, cousins of parents and the grandchildren of grandparents' brothers and sisters. This also includes close relatives of stepparents (by stepparents we mean individuals who act like a mother or a father without being a biological parent, e.g. foster parents).

Yes No

If yes, state how you and your spouse/cohabiting partner are related:

If yes, state any reasons you believe contradict the assumption that your marriage/cohabiting partnership has not been entered into voluntarily by both you and your partner:

1. About the marriage

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

You only need to fill out section 1 if you are married. If you are not married, go directly to section 2.

Danish legislation requires that we determine whether:

- Your marriage is valid under Danish laws.
- The marriage is entered into at the will of both spouses.
- The marriage is pro forma, i.e. with the primary reason of obtaining a residence permit for you.

Please note: According to Danish law marriages conducted by proxy (where one or both spouses were not present during the ceremony) are invalid. Marriages conducted by a religious cleric and without legal authority are also considered invalid. Such marriages can therefore not be used as a basis for family reunification.

The questions below are intended to help us look into this. We ask these questions in all cases, and we only ask questions that can be relevant for processing an application for family reunification for spouses.

When did you first meet your spouse?

How did you meet your spouse?

If you and your spouse met on the internet, when did you meet for the first time in person?

Did you decide for yourselves that you should marry?

Yes No

If no, who decided it?

When was the decision made?

If you have lived together before you got married, state where and in which periods:

If you have not lived together before you got married, explain how often and under what circumstances you maintain contact with your spouse:

Did you plan your own wedding?
 Yes No
 If no, who planned your wedding?

Where and when did you marry?

Were you both present at the ceremony?
 Yes No
 If you have not lived together since you got married, explain how often and under what circumstances you maintain contact with your spouse:

When did you last see each other?

Which language(s) do you speak together?

2. Previous marriages PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

If you have been married before, provide the following information about your previous spouses:

	Given name(s) and surname	Date of birth (day, month, year)	Nationality	Dates marriage began and ended (day, month, year)
2.
3.

3. Information about your family relations PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Do you have parents or siblings who have been granted a residence permit in Denmark on the grounds of family reunification?
 Yes No
 If yes, who (given names(s) and surname)?

4. About your cohabitation

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

You only need to fill out section 4 if you are not married. If you are married, go directly to section 5.
You and your cohabiting partner can be granted family reunification in Denmark, even though you are not married.
Normally, however, this requires that you have lived together for 18 months or longer, and that your cohabitation can be documented.

When did you first meet your cohabiting partner?

How did you meet your cohabiting partner?

If you and your cohabiting partner met on the internet, when did you meet for the first time in person?

State where and in which periods you have lived together:

Address (Street, number, postcode, city)	Period (from date – to date)

If you occasionally have not lived together, explain how often and under what circumstances you maintained contact with your cohabiting partner:

When did you last see each other?

Which language(s) do you speak together?

You must enclose documentation of your cohabitation.

5. Children from current relationship living in Denmark

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Below we ask some questions about children you and your current spouse or cohabiting partner (the applicant) are both parents of. The questions about your common children are asked to determine whether you are exempt from some of the requirements for family reunification of spouses (e.g. the requirement about collateral guarantee).

Do you and your spouse/cohabiting partner have any common children under the age of 18 together who are living at home with you in Denmark?

Yes No

If yes, provide the following information about each child:

Child 1

Given name(s) and surname	CPR number
---------------------------	------------

Has the child attended a Danish nursery school or kindergarten?

Yes No

If yes, state the name and address of the nursery school or kindergarten, and when the child has attended the nursery school or kindergarten (from date to date):

Has the child attended a Danish school?

Yes No

If yes, state the name of the school(s), and when the child has attended the school(s) (from date to date):

Child 2

Given name(s) and surname

CPR number

Has the child attended a Danish nursery school or kindergarten?

Yes No

If yes, state the name and address of the nursery school or kindergarten, and when the child has attended the nursery school or kindergarten (from date to date):

Has the child attended a Danish school?

Yes No

If yes, state the name of the school(s), and when the child has attended the school(s) (from date to date):

Child 3

Given name(s) and surname

CPR number

Has the child attended a Danish nursery school or kindergarten?

Yes No

If yes, state the name and address of the nursery school or kindergarten, and when the child has attended the nursery school or kindergarten (from date to date):

Has the child attended a Danish school?

Yes No

If yes, state the name of the school(s), and when the child has attended the school(s) (from date to date):

About the questions in sections 6-9

About the requirements for family reunification

You must meet certain basic requirements in order to qualify for family reunification in Denmark. For example, your marriage must be valid. In order to ensure that you meet these requirements, we have just asked a number of questions that everyone must answer.

Furthermore you normally have to meet a number of additional requirements to be granted family reunification. For example, that you meet an integration requirement, that you have an adequate residence and that you can financially support yourself and your spouse/cohabitating partner. In section 6-9 we ask a number of questions to find out if you meet the additional requirements.

When you have asylum in Denmark

When you have a residence permit on the grounds of asylum, we only put these additional requirements forward if we access that you and your spouse/cohabitating partner can be referred to live as a family in another country.

If you have been granted asylum recently, we will normally be able to access whether you can be referred to live as a family in another country quickly. Therefore we will only put forward the basic requirements for family reunification.

If there is doubt about whether you can be referred to reside in another country with your spouse, the Immigration Service will access the question closer. Our decision about this will be based on the information you supplied when you applied for asylum.

If we determine that you do not face persecution in your home country or in your spouse/cohabitating partner's home country or country of residence, you will be able to argue against that assessment before we make a ruling.

Which questions do you have to answer?

If you believe that you still risk persecution in your home country, or in your spouse/cohabitating partner's home country or country of residence, and you would therefore not be able to live there as a family, then you do not need to complete sections 6-9 but can go directly to section 10.

If you doubt whether you still risk persecution in your home country, for example because you were granted asylum in Denmark many years ago and there has been changes in your home country, we recommend you fill out sections 6-9.

If you do not complete Section 6-9, and the Immigration Service later determines that you will be required to meet all the requirements, you will be asked to answer them subsequently.

About jobs on the Positive List

If you are employed in a field listed on the Positive List, the Immigration Service can waive the 24-year requirement. If you would like the Immigration Service to take into account that your position is included on the Positive List, please fill out section 7.A and enclose documentation in the form of your academic diploma and employment contract, or an actual job offer. You can read more about which fields are included on the Positive List at newtodenmark.dk.

6. Children from previous relationships living in Denmark

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Below are a series of questions about any children you may have from any previous relationships. The questions about children from previous relationships are asked to determine whether you are exempt from some of the requirements for family reunification of spouses (e.g. the collateral requirement).

If you have children from a previous relationship, please note that we may contact the other parent of these children in order to confirm the information you have given.

Do you have children under the age of 18 from a previous relationship living in Denmark?

Yes No

If no, go to section 7.A.

If you request that the Immigration Service not take your children from a previous relationship into consideration when processing your case, please state this below. If you state this, it will not be necessary for the Immigration Service to contact the other parent of your children from a previous relationship. However, you should note that the consequence will be that the Immigration Service will not be able to exempt you from some of the requirements on the grounds of your children from a previous relationship. In other words, you will be expected to meet all the normal requirements for family reunification. For example, you and your spouse/cohabitating partner meet an integration requirement, you may not have received public assistance, you must have a suitably large residence and you must post a monetary guarantee.

I do not wish for the Immigration Service to take into consideration that I have a child from a previous marriage. I understand that this means that I normally will be required to meet all conditions for family reunification.

If you wish the Immigration Service to take into consideration that you have children from a previous marriage, please give your consent in section 6.A that the Immigration Service can pass on information that you are involved in an application for residence permit. This consent is given by signing the declaration below. In addition, you must fill in section 6.B with information about each of your children from a previous marriage.

6.A Declaration of consent for disclosure of information

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

I hereby give my consent that the Immigration Service can pass on information that I am involved with an application for residence permit to the other parent of my children who resides in Denmark.

7.A Employment, education and language skills

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Normally, it is a requirement for residence permit, that you and your spouse or partner meet an integration requirement. You meet this requirement together by meeting 4 out of 6 integration-related conditions. One of the conditions is not optional. Besides that condition, you will need to meet 3 out of 5 other conditions.

The 6 conditions are:

- You have passed the Danish language test 3, or a test that are equivalent to or at a higher level (must always be met – not optional).
- You have had fulltime employment or been self-employed in Denmark for a minimum of 5 years.
- You have attended school for a minimum of 6 years, with at least 1 of the 6 years being secondary education.

- Your spouse or partner has passed a Danish language test 1 or an English test at B1 level, or another Danish or English test that are equivalent to or at a higher level.
- Your spouse or partner has had fulltime employment or been self-employed for a minimum of 3 years within the last 5 years.
- Your spouse or partner has passed an educational course with the duration of at least 1 year, at a level minimum equivalent to a Danish vocational education.

It is up to you yourselves to decide which 3 of the 5 optional conditions you want to include in to the assessment of whether you meet the integration requirement. Therefor it is only necessary for you to enclose documentation for your education and/or work, if you wish that those specific conditions are part of the assessment of whether you meet the requirement.

Read more about the integration requirement and the specific conditions at www.newodenmark.dk/integrationrequirement

Are you employed in Denmark?

Yes No

If yes, give the following information:

Place of employment and contact information	Weekly working hours	Date of employment
Position	Job description (brief)

Is your job included on the Positive List?

Yes No

If yes, enclose documentation in the form of diploma and employment contract or job offer.

If yes, and you know the your job position's classification code (DISCO code), state the DISCO code:

Have you had other jobs in Denmark?

Yes No

If yes, give the following information:

	Place of employment and contact information	Job description (brief)	Weekly working hours	Date of employment	Date of resignation
2.
3.
4.

I yes, you must enclose documentation for your job(s), if you want to meet the integration-related condition about employment for at least 5 years. The documentation can e.g. be employment contracts, a declaration from your employer, pay bills etc.

Are you a self-employed person?

Yes No

If yes, inform the following about your company:

The company's name and CVR number

Address

Telephone number

Your working hours per week

The company's start date/acquisition date

Number of employees

Describe your work effort in the company, the type of company, the company's size, turnover, opening hours etc.

If yes, you must enclose documentation for your job as a self-employed person, if you want to meet the integration-related condition about employment for 3 out of last 5 years. The documentation can e.g. be a proof of ownership, registration certificate from the tax authorities regarding CVR number, VAT returns or annual accounts. The documentation must be in copy with an authorised translation to Danish or English.

Have you attended primary school in Denmark?

Yes No

If yes, for how many years?

Have you or are you currently getting an education in Denmark?

Yes No

If yes, state which education and when you finished or expect to finish:

You must enclose documentation for your education, if you want to meet the integration-related condition about education with duration of at least 6 years. The documentation can e.g. be a test diploma, or a statement from the educational institution specifying the period where you have been admitted to the institution. It can also be verified transcripts with grades.

Have you passed a Danish language test 3 or another test equivalent to or at a higher level?

Yes No

If yes, you must enclose documentation for your Danish language skills. The documentation can e.g. be a test diploma for the Danish language test 3 or Folkeskolens diploma.

7.B Consent to data collection

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

If you want to meet the integration-related conditions regarding employment and/or education, you must be aware that we may contact the employers or the educational institutions that you have stated in section 7.A, in order to get your information confirmed.

Below you must give your consent to us contacting your employers and/or educational institutions. If you do not give your consent, it can result in you not meeting the integration-related conditions about employment and education.

I hereby consent that the Immigration Service can contact the employer(s) stated in section 7.A in order to get my employment(s) confirmed.

I hereby consent that the Immigration Service can contact the educational institution(s) stated in section 7.A in order to get my educational course(s) confirmed.

8. Declaration regarding public assistance

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Normally, it is a requirement that you are able to support yourself if your spouse/cohabitating partner is to be granted a residence permit. This means that you cannot have received public assistance under the terms of the Active Social Policy Act (lov om aktiv socialpolitik) or the Integration Act (integrationsloven) for the last three years prior to the ruling of the residence permit (Aliens Act section 9 (5)). The requirement does not apply if the benefits are small, one-time benefits that are not related to assistance or benefits that are comparable to wages or a pension or the equivalent.

Examples of benefits granted under the terms of the Active Social Policy Act or the Integration Act, and therefore will have an influence on whether your spouse/cohabitating partner can be granted a residence permit:

- Social Security (kontanthjælp)
- Integration benefits (integrationsydelse)
- Danish Start Help (starthjælp)
- Rehabilitation benefits (revalideringsydelse)

Examples of benefits that do not have an influence on whether your spouse/cohabitating partner can be granted a residence permit:

- Student grants (SU)

- Benefits paid during periods of unemployment (arbejdsløshedsdagpenge), illness (sygedagpenge) or paternity leave (barselsdagpenge)
- Pension (including early aged pension and old aged pension)
- Housing assistance (boligstøtte) granted under the terms of Individual Housing Assistance Act (lov om individuel boligstøtte)
- Financial support granted to an employer upon hiring you in a wage subsidies (løntilskud) or flexjob (fleksjob) position
- Full subsidised places for children in day-care (friplads)
- Tax-free educational grant
- Danish language profit (Danskbonus)

Below you must solemnly swear on whether you have received public benefits under the terms of the Active Social Policy Act or the Integration Act for the last three years regardless of the size of the benefit. Thereafter the Immigration Service will access if the benefit (if applicable) is covered by the self-support requirement.

If it is required that you are able to support yourself, your spouse's/cohabitating partner's residence permit can be revoked if you receive public benefits under the terms of the Active Social Policy Act or the Integration Act until your spouse/cohabitating partner has been granted a permanent residence permit.

Please note, the Immigration Service will obtain information from the income registry (eIndkomst) when the application is being processed regarding whether you have received benefits under the terms of the Active Social Policy Act or the Integration Act. If there is an inconsistency between your information and the information from the income registry, you will be asked to submit comments.

Furthermore you should note that you will be punished with a fine or imprisonment of up to two years if the information you have provided is found to be false (Criminal Code section 161, cf. Section 40).

Declaration regarding public assistance

(Tick only one box)

I solemnly swear that I have not received public assistance under the terms of the Active Social Policy Act or the Integration Act for the last three years.

I swear that I have received the following types of public assistance under the terms of the Active Social Policy Act for the last three years:

Benefit	Monthly amount	Start date (day/month/year)	End date (day/month/year)	Municipality, that has paid the benefit

9. Residence

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

In order for your spouse/cohabiting partner to be granted a Danish residence permit, it is normally required that you have an independent reasonably sized residence at your disposal. It is normally also a requirement that your residence is not placed in an area mentioned on the housing requirement list. Read more about the housing requirement at www.newtodenmark.dk/family

Do you rent your residence?

Yes No

If yes, you must answer the following:

Do you rent a co-operatively owned residence (andelsbolig or anpartsbolig)?

Yes No

If yes, you must enclose documentation that the rental agreement is approved by the co-operative association.

Do you rent your residence for a limited period of time?

Yes No

If yes, when does your rental expire?

Is your landlord a social housing organisation (almen boligforening)?

Yes No

If yes, state the name of the organisation and the name of the local section:

Enclose a copy of your rental contract with the landlord.

Do you rent your residence as sublease (fremleje)?

Yes No

If yes, state the following:

When does your sublease contract expire?

Is the subleased residence in a social housing organisation (almen boligforening)?

Yes No

If yes, state the name of the organisation and the name of the local section:

Enclose a copy of your sublease contract with the landlord.

Do you have a part of a residence at your disposal as an owner, renter, sublessor or co-operative owner?

Yes No

How many rooms are there in your residence? (Kitchen, bathroom, foyer, staircase, storage rooms, etc. are not considered rooms)

How large is each room? (You must describe the m² for each room)

How many people will live in your residence? (Please include the people currently living there and the people who are applying for family reunification in Denmark)

10. Other relevant information

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

Please state whether there is other information which you feel is relevant for your application, e.g. do you suffer from a serious illness or a handicap which you feel is relevant for your application. Enclose documentation for your claim (e.g. doctor's note confirming the serious illness or handicap). The Immigration Service will use the documentation to evaluate whether the information is relevant.

If you have been granted a temporary protected status (residence permit in accordance with Section 7 (3) of the Aliens Act), you will normally only qualify for family reunification after 3 years and only if the temporary residence permit has been extended after 3 years of residence. However, there can be certain situations in which granting family reunification may be necessary to avoid a hardship, even if the residence permit has not been extended after 3 years. This would for example be the case if you have taken care of a handicapped spouse/partner in your home country before moving to Denmark, or if you have a seriously ill minor children living in your country of origin.

Any other relevant information for the processing of your spouse/partner's application:

11. Declaration of cohabitation

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

This declaration should only be completed, if your spouse/cohabitating partner (the applicant) currently is in Denmark.

In order for your spouse/partner to be granted family reunification you must fulfil the declaration of cohabitation. If you do not mark the declaration or in another way indicate and document that you accept the content of the declaration, it can influence your spouse/partner's application for family reunification, and you must expect that he/she gets a refusal.

If you in another way have indicated to accept the content of the declaration you must attach documentation for this.

(Please tick the box)

I hereby solemnly swear

- that I live together with my spouse/cohabitating partner (the applicant) at the shared address given below, and
- that we did not enter into our marriage/cohabitation solely in order for my spouse/cohabitating partner (the applicant) to qualify for residence in Denmark.

Address (street, number, postcode, and city)

I do not want to fulfil the declaration of cohabitation.

12. Declaration of my spouse's/cohabiting partner's active participation in Danish language learning and integration into Danish society, in accordance with section 9(2) of the Aliens Act of the Danish language, culture and society, or who do not have a foundation for understanding them.

In order for your spouse/partner to be granted family reunification you must fulfil the declaration that you will, to the best of your ability, actively participate in your spouse's/cohabiting partner's and your children's Danish language education and integration into Danish society. If you do not mark the declaration or in another way indicate and document that you accept the content of the declaration, it can influence your spouse/partner's application for family reunification, and you must expect that he/she gets a refusal.

If you in another way have indicated to accept the content of the declaration you must attach documentation for this.

- I hereby declare that I will, to the best of my ability, actively participate in my spouse's/cohabiting partner's and my children's Danish language education and integration into Danish society. I thus declare the following:
- I will endeavour to help my spouse/cohabiting partner become self-supporting through employment.
 - I will endeavour to help my spouse/cohabiting partner learn the Danish language.
 - I will endeavour to help my spouse/cohabiting partner to acquire an understanding of the fundamental values and norms of Danish society.
 - I will help my spouse/cohabiting partner to become an active member of Danish society.
 - I will help my spouse/cohabiting partner to actively participate in the integration programme offered to him/her.
 - I will work for my children's integration by – in co-operation with day care centres, schools and the like – making sure that my children learn Danish as quickly as possible, and that they learn to take responsibility for their own education.
 - I understand that the DKK 107,394.25 (2022 level) guarantee which will normally be required when applying for a residence permit for a spouse/cohabiting partner, will upon request be reduced:
 - by DKK 21,478.85 (2022 level) if my spouse/cohabiting partner within 6 months after he/she has registered with the Civil Registration System (CPR) passes a test in Danish at A1 level (or another Danish test at a similar or higher level).
 - by DKK 10,739.42 (2022 level) if my spouse/cohabiting partner within 9 months after he/she has registered with the Civil Registration System (CPR) passes a test in Danish at A2 level (or another Danish test at a similar or higher level).
 - by DKK 10,739.42 (2022 level) - however the guarantee must constitute at least DKK 64,436.55 (2022 level) - if my spouse/cohabiting partner passes a final Danish language test.

I do not declare that I will, to the best of my ability, actively participate in my spouse's/cohabiting partner's and my children's Danish language education and integration into Danish society

13. Other declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I hereby solemnly swear that the information I have given in this form is correct.

If the information is found to be false, I am subject to the following penalties:

- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years (Criminal Code section 161, cf. Aliens Act section 40).
- I can be required by law to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false information (Aliens Act section 40).
- The applicant's residence permit can be revoked (Aliens Act section 19).

B. Sworn declaration that I have not been convicted of crimes against a spouse/cohabiting partner

I hereby solemnly swear that I have not been found guilty of a serious criminal offence against a spouse or cohabiting partner within the past ten years. 'Serious criminal offence' includes crimes for which I have been sentenced to imprisonment, suspended or otherwise, or other punishment of a criminal offence that involves or leaves open the possibility of imprisonment.

Such violations of the Danish Criminal Code include:

- sec. 213 – Offences against family relationships
- sec. 216 or 217, sec. 224 or 225, cf. sec. 216 or 217, sec. 228, sec. 229 (1) – Sexual offences
- sec. 237 or sec. 243-246 and sec. 250 – Offences of violence against the person
- sec. 260, 261 and 262 a – Offences against personal liberty
- sec. 266 – Threats

If the declaration is found to be false, I am subject to the following penalties:

- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years (Criminal Code section 161, cf. Aliens Act section 40)
- I can be required by law to repay the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false declaration (Aliens Act section 40).
- The applicant's residence permit can be revoked (Aliens Act section 19).

C. Information about data protection

You can get information about how the Immigration Service processes your data and about your rights in the fact sheet at the back of this part of the form.

D. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Immigration Service may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you have given in this application. This may happen while the application is being processed or later, if the applicant is granted a permit. If the applicant is granted a permit and the Immigration Service finds that he/she no longer meets the requirements of his/her residence permit, his/her permit may be revoked. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information, or suspects the applicant of not meeting the requirements of his/her residence permit.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Civil Registration System
- Comparison of information contained in the Danish immigration authorities' registers with records held by the Central Office of Civil Registration (CPR Office), the Buildings and Housing Registry (BBR) or the income registry (eIndkomst)
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

Attachment 1: Sworn declaration that I will support the applicant (To be completed only if you are not married or if your marriage can not be recognized by Danish Law)

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

This declaration is only to be filled out if you are not married to the applicant or if your marriage can not be recognized by Danish law.

If you are married to the applicant, Danish law requires you to financially support your spouse.

If you are not married to the applicant, you must accept the obligation to financially support your cohabiting partner.

If we assess that your marriage cannot be recognized by Danish law, we will assess whether you can be regarded as cohabiting partners. You have to accept the obligation to support the applicant if the applicant is to be granted a residence permit on the grounds of cohabitation.

By signing this declaration, you agree to accept this obligation.

If your cohabiting partner is granted a residence permit, we will send a copy of this declaration to the municipality (kommune) in which you live.

If you are currently residing abroad, we will send a copy of the declaration to the municipality where you plan to live.

for as long as he/she holds a temporary residence permit in accordance with section 9(1) (i) or section 9c(1) of the Danish Aliens Act.

I understand that signing this declaration is a requirement for my cohabiting partner to be granted a residence permit (section 9(3) or section 9c(1) (ii) of the Aliens Act).

Furthermore, I am aware that if my cohabiting partner receives public assistance under the terms of the Active Social Policy Act or the Integration Act, that the local council (kommunalbestyrelsen) will require that I reimburse the municipality (kommune), and that if I fail to pay, the local council will collect payment from me in accordance with legislation governing the collection of income tax (Aliens Act section 9(26)).

Finally, I am aware that if my cohabiting partner requires long-term assistance, the Danish Immigration Service can decide to expatriate him/her (section 3 of the Active Social Policy Act). If this occurs, my cohabiting partner's residence permit will be revoked (section 18 of the Aliens Act).

In order for your partner to be granted family reunification you must fulfil the declaration of financial support. If you do not mark the declaration or in another way indicate and document that you accept the content of the declaration, it can influence your partner's application for family reunification, and you must expect that he/she gets a refusal.

If you in another way have indicated to accept the content of the declaration you must attach documentation for this.

I do not want to fulfil the declaration of financial support.

Attachment 2: Sworn declaration that I have not been convicted of crimes against minor children

If your spouse/cohabiting partner (the applicant) has a child or children from a previous relationship, who is/are also applying for a Danish residence permit, please sign the declaration below stating that you have not been convicted of crimes against a minor child in the past 10 years.

In order for your spouse/partner to be granted family reunification you must fulfil the declaration about crimes against minor children. If you do not mark the declaration or in another way indicate and document that you accept the content of the declaration, it can influence your spouse/partner's application for family reunification, and you must expect that he/she gets a refusal.

If you in another way have indicated to accept the content of the declaration you must attach documentation for this.

I hereby solemnly declare that in the past ten years I have not been sentenced to imprisonment, suspended or otherwise, or other punishment for a criminal offence that involves or leaves open the possibility of imprisonment for violations of one or more of the following sections of the criminal code:

- sec. 210 (1) or (3), cf. (1), or sec. 213 – Offences against family relationships
- sec. 216-219, sec. 222 or sec. 223, sec. 224 or 225, cf. sec. 216-219, sec. 228, sec. 229 (1), sec. 230, sec. 232, sec. 235 – Specific sexual offences
- sec. 237 or sec. 243-246 and sec. 250 – Offences of violence against the person
- sec. 260, sec. 261 and sec. 262 a(2) – Offences against personal liberty
- sec. 266 – Threats

If the applicant is granted a residence permit, and this declaration is later found to be false, the residence permit can be revoked as a consequence. Moreover, if my declaration is later found to be false, I:

- am subject to a fine or imprisonment of up to two years (Criminal Code section 161, cf. Aliens Act section 40), and
- can be required to reimburse the Danish state for expenses incurred as a result of the false declaration (Aliens Act section 40).

By signing below I confirm that I have read, understood and accepted the contents of this declaration.

Have you remembered everything?

If the application for family reunification with your spouse is correctly filled out and contains the required documents, the Immigration Service can process your case with the shortest possible processing time. The expected maximum processing time for applications for family reunification can be found at www.newtodenmark.dk/us-times. If the application is not correctly filled out or is missing documents, it can be refused, or the processing time may be longer. It is therefore important that you make certain that the form is filled out correctly and that you have included the necessary documents before submitting your application.

We recommend using the checklist below before submitting the application.

Checklist

Before submitting this part of the form, please ensure you have included the following documents:

- Documentation of your cohabitation. Only required if you are not married.
- Sworn declaration that you will support the applicant (Attachment 1). Only required if you are not married or your marriage is not recognised by Danish law.
- Sworn declaration that you have not been convicted of crimes against minor children (Attachment 2) (only required if your spouse/cohabitating partner (the applicant) has children from a previous relationship who is/are also applying for a Danish residence permit).
- Documentation of other relevant information listed in section 10.

If you are in doubt whether you still risk persecution or violence in your home country and thus you have filled out section 6-9 and attachment 3, you should also include the following:

- Documentation of your housing situation.
- Documentation for completed Danish language test 3 or another test at an equivalent or higher level.
- Documentation for education for at least 6 years (if applicable).
- Documentation for employment for at least 5 years (if applicable).

It is also important to

- answer all questions,
- sign and date the information form,
- sign and date the sworn declaration that you will support the applicant (Attachment 1) (only required if you are not married or if your marriage can not be recognized by Danish Law), and
- sign and date the declaration stating that you have not been convicted of crimes against a minor child (Attachment 2) (only required if your spouse/cohabitating partner (the applicant) has a child or children from a previous relationship who is/are also applying for a Danish residence permit).

Information about data protection in the Danish Immigration Service

Data controller

The Immigration Service is responsible for processing the personal data you provide in this application form and for the data about you we receive in connection with processing the case. Our contact information is: Danish Immigration Service, Farimagvej 51A, 4700 Næstved, CVR-nr.: 77940413, telephone: +45 35 36 66 00, www.newtodenmark.dk

Data protection officer

If you have questions about how we process your personal data, you can contact our data protection officer who has the following contact information: Danish Immigration Service, Farimagvej 51A, 4700 Næstved, Att: Databeskyttelsesrådgiver/Data protection officer

You can also write to our data protection officer via Digital Post (e-Boks) or through our contact form at www.newtodenmark.dk/contact-us

Purpose and legal basis

Your data are collected in order to process this application and the applicant's continual residence in Denmark and to control the requirements for this.

The legal basis for processing your personal data is:

- provisions of the Aliens Act (udlændingeloven), in particular: section 1 (relating to entry into Denmark and residence)
- the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 6.1(c) (relating to the processing of data in order to comply with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject) and 6.1 (e) (relating to the exercise of official authority vested in the Immigration Service by the Aliens Act)
- GDPR 9.2 (f) (relating to the necessity of processing in order to establish, exercise or defend legal claims)
- The Data Protection Act section 8 (relating to the administration only being allowed to process information about criminal offences if it is necessary for the official authorities' tasks).

You are not obligated to answer the questions in this form. If you chose not to answer one or more questions, the Danish Immigration Service can order you to provide the information that is necessary to assess whether your spouse/cohabitating partner can be granted a Danish residence permit (Aliens Act section 40). If you do not provide the information it can result in your spouse's/cohabitating partner not being granted a residence permit.

The information you have supplied in this form will be registered in the Danish immigration authorities' registers. The same holds true for any information you give later in conjunction with an application to extend your spouse's/cohabitating partner's residence permit.

Types of personal data

We process the following types of data about you:

- General personal data, such as: information about your identity; citizenship and nationality; travel routes; information about your family; memberships of associations; financial information; information about your refugee status; and whether you have committed any legally punishable offences
- Sensitive personal data, such as: political opinions or religious beliefs; health information and biometric data collected for the purpose of establishing your identity.

Recipients and categories of recipients

The Immigration Service can, in certain situations, share your data with other authorities. We regularly share data with: the police, municipal authorities, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service and the Danish Defence Intelligence Service (in accordance with section 45 a of the Aliens Act), the public prosecutor (in accordance with section 45 c of the Aliens Act), the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish Return Agency, the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration, the Danish Parliament, and the Foreign Ministry, in particular the embassies and consulates.

Data are shared when it is necessary for the Immigration Service to exercise our official authority, including when we are legally obliged to share data.

In certain situations, the Immigration Service may provide data to a third-party data processor. In addition, other authorities and private organisations can have access to this information (Aliens Act section 44a). In isolated cases, the Immigration Service will share data with other public authorities, private-sector organisations and foreign organisations and authorities.

Origin of information

The Immigration Service processes the personal data you have provided in this application form and data you may provide at a later point in the case process.

In addition, we will process data obtained from:

- any of your possible previous cases with the Immigration Service,
- searches in databases, such as: the Civil Registration System, the income register (eIndkomst), the Central Register of Buildings and Dwellings (BBR), the Central Crime Register (KR), the Central Passport Register and the Schengen Information System (SIS II),

- other authorities, such as: the police, municipal authorities, the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration, the Immigration Appeals Board, the Refugee Appeals Board, the Danish Security and Intelligence Service, The Ministry of Immigration and Integration, the Danish Return Agency, and the Foreign Ministry, in particular the embassies and consulates,
- third-parties, such as: employers and educational institutions, and
- the person, who is applying because of his/her relation to you, as well as any previous cases the person may have had at the Immigration Service.

Storage of data

The Immigration Service will store your data for as long as it is necessary for us to establish or defend a legal claim to residence.

Data submitted as part of an immigration-related matter can be stored for use by the Immigration Service at a later date. The data stored by the Immigration Service can be used in applications to extend a residence permit, when revoking a residence permit, when lapsing a residence permit, applications for permanent residency, applications for naturalisation, when revoking citizenship and in your children's cases, or in the event they may be involved in an application for family reunification.

If data can be deleted at an earlier point, deletion will be considered. Similarly, access to data can be restricted.

Finally, it should be mentioned that data will also have to be transferred to the National Archives within 30 years, in accordance with section 13 of the Archive Act (arkivloven).

Consent

The Immigration Service does not request consents in order to process personal data, as is otherwise required by the GDPR, since processing authority is granted by 6.1 (e) and 9.2 (f) of the GDPR (see section 3).

You may be asked for legal consent. Such a consent is not the basis for the specific procession of personal data but is instead a warranty provision in accordance with e.g. the Public Administration Act (forvaltningsloven) or the Aliens Act.

Rights

Under the GDPR, you have certain rights:

- You have the right to access which data about you the Immigration Service is processing.
- You have the right to request that corrections are made to personal data about you that you feel are inaccurate.
- In special situations you have the right to have data about you deleted or to restrict the processing of your personal data, if the data is no longer necessary for the processing of your case.
- You have the right to object to otherwise legal processing of your personal data.

You can read more about your rights in the Danish Data Protection Agency's guidance about the GDPR at www.datatilsynet.dk. If you would like make use of your rights under the GDPR, contact the Immigration Service.

Complaints to the Data Protection Agency

You have the right to submit a complaint to the Data Protection Agency if you are dissatisfied with the way we process your personal data. Information about how to do so is available at www.datatilsynet.dk
